Charming colored waitresses will serve you and you will surely think you are "Under Southern Skies." Mr. A. W. Allen and Mr. W. B. Pitkin as colored headwaiters will render you matchless service.

"David Harum" is said to owe its remarkable success to the fact that it strikes closely to the book from which it is taken and furthermore that it is full of actual, concrete, real human nature. It boasts of no exaggeration. All of the people who move through its story are types everyone has seen who has ever lived in a small town. No more humorous book than "David Harum" was written in years and no more humorous play than "David Harum" has been unfolded before the house, Tuesday evening, Oct. 4.

CONDUCTOR HOYE DEAD.

Former Trainman on C. V. Line Between Barre and the Junction.

The funeral of William Hoyer, a former Central Vermont conductor on trains from this city to the Junction, who died Sunday at St. Albans, was held today. It was over a year ago that Conductor Hoyer had to give up his position on account of pneumonia. He was taken to the Boston hospital in Montpelier where he remained for months. Heart trouble also developed, making his condition most serious. A few weeks ago he was taken to the home of his sister in St. Albans. He was 56 years of age and leaves a daughter.

The deceased was a member of Montpelier council, Knights of Columbus, and this is the first death this council has had since its organization. A party of railroad men attending trainmen's school called to visit Conductor Hoyer Sunday and found that he had died half an hour before.

WILLIAM ROCKWELL ARRESTED.

Another Move Growing Out of the Recent Shooting Affair at Rouses Point.

Rouses Point, N. Y., Oct. 3.—William Rockwell of Alburg, Vt., was arrested Saturday, under the complaint of Charles Phillips of the Clinton house for assault in the second degree. L. W. Meyers furnished the bail of $500.

This arrest undoubtedly grows out of the row at the Clinton house, Rouses Point, Thursday, September 22, when Leroy Rockwell, brother of the man arrested Saturday, was shot and dangerously wounded. It is alleged, by Charles Phillips.

David Harum Tonight.

The coming of "David Harum" to the Barre opera house tonight is certain to arouse feelings of pleasure in advance to countless people who are familiar with Wescott's book. The play taken from the novel has been the principal success of the past two years in the theatrical world and it has known an amount of popularity that has surprised even the most sanguine of its well wishers. The play is said to be a delightful reproduction of all the amusing scenes so aptly and cleverly described in the book. The horse trade between Harum and the sanctimonious Deacon Perkins comes early in the play and its humor is irresistible. Later the Deacon is seen behind the bulky horse during a heavy shower of rain and this scene is described as being one of the most amusing that has been unfolded in years.

Is Probably Not Insane.

Montpelier, Oct. 3.—Frank Hunt was brought back from the Waterbury asylum this noon by Sheriff G. B. Evans. He was sent to the asylum last March for observation and it is understood that a report has been or will be made that he is sane. He was charged with breach of the peace by assaulting his wife, and the case will be disposed of at this term.

WORTH A THOUGHT.

This Statement Will Interest Scores of Barre Readers.

The facts given below are worth a perusal by all who are anxious about their physical condition or are similarly situated to this residents of Orange. It is a local occurrence and can be thoroughly investigated.

Mrs. A. M. Andrews (A. M. Andrews, farmer), residence, Orange, says: "Some in Doan's Kidney Pills in my back and hips and as the weeks and months went by it became more severe and were of much longer duration. Finally too frequent action of the kidney secretions was added to the backache, and as they were often distressing and annoying health ran down and it was impossible for me to do the slightest household work with any degree of pleasure. If I was on my feet for any length of time I was taken with dizziness and blurring before my eyes and I often became so weak and nervous that I almost fell. A lady friend in Barre recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and my husband went to E. A. Brown's for the first box. I cannot positively state that the remedy has actually rid me of the cause of the backache and other complications due to kidney complaint, but I must conscientiously say that from the benefit received I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and believe that what is said about them is not misrepresentation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
